The Sentinel for 1863!

THE governmental and political questions of the Pelaware and Blackford alter March.
Fayette and Union—Benjit in F. Claypool.
Fountain—Heary Campbell coming year will have an absorbing interest for every citizen. We are engaged in a gigantic civil war, the result of which none can foresee. It threatens a radical change in the institutions and principles upon which the Government was founded, and the destruction of the liberty and rights of the citizen, such as the people of no other nation have enjoyed, and to which may be attributed our unequaled progress in national prosperity and greatness. The issue will Noble, DeKalb and Steuber - Timothy soon be upon us, whether this free Government shall be preserved and maintained and the rights of the States Randolph-Thomas R. Brown, (contested.) under the Constitution perpetuated, or a powerful central authority be permitted to grow out of this war, obliterating State lines, State institutions, and all those checks upon the Federal Government, rights reserved by the States, which have constituted the excellence and supe riority of our nationality-States "one as the sea" for the common objects set forth in the Constitution, but Jasper, Lake, Newton and Porter-Ezra Right. faithfully given, so that the public may be advised as to its progress; the results of battles; the condition of the contending armies, and all that affects the great struggle, at home and abroad, for the overthrow of the Rebellion. In addition, the Sentinel will contain the CURRENT NEWS of the day, CHOICE MISCELLANY, STATE ITEMS, the latest reports of the NEW YORK and CIN-CINNATI GENERAL and CATTLE MARKETS, the condition of the MONEY and STOCK MARKETS; in a word, it will be the effort of the Proprietors of the Sentinel to give its columns an interest for all classes of readers and CHECKS, such information as will be especially adapted to the well being of the citizens of Indiana.

The Sentinel will continue to represent and stand by the regular organizations of the Democratic party, State and National; sustain the principles and policy they shall avow, and support the candidates they may nominate.

We have no agents. The low prices for subscription will not allow it. We therefore ask our Democratic friends-all who desire the success of sound principlesto aid in the extension of the circulation of the Sentinel, Daily and Weekly, until they shall at least reach every Democratte family in Indiana. The press is a most important agent in directing aright the public mind, and all that is needed to give the Democratic party permanent rule is the enlightenment of the people as to its principles and policy. It shall be our aim, with all the ability we possess, to faithfully advocate Democratic sentiments and measures, for we believe that in sc doing we best promote the true interests of the country. TERESTE. TERMS OF THE DAILY SENTINEL.
